

Corporal Matthew Lembke Memorial Scholarships

The Foundation for Tigard Tualatin Schools smart kids. smart community.

These scholarships are dedicated to the memory of Matt Lembke and have been established by teachers at Tualatin High School and are funded by the generous donations of family, friends and the community. The Tualatin Chamber of Commerce has played an integral part in fundraising for this scholarship fund, and as such, is a co-sponsor for the second award for a student majoring in Business.

Applicants must reside in Tualatin, attend Tualatin High School their junior and senior year, and graduate from Tualatin High School with plans to attend an Oregon accredited college or university.

Matt Lembke was an enthusiastic and optimistic person with a quick smile and a witty sense of humor. He was energetic and full of life. Matt loved the outdoors and played several sports but football became his passion in high school, where he was given the nickname "Lumpe" by a coach. Matt was a 2005 graduate of Tualatin High School who joined the Marine Corp shortly after graduation with the intent to become the best Marine he could be. He served two tours of duty in Iraq and extended his commitment to the Marine Corp in order to participate in a third tour to Afghanistan with plans to attend college in Oregon after completion of that deployment. Matt was critically injured by an improvised explosive device while on foot patrol during his deployment to Afghanistan in June of 2009 and succumbed to complications to the injuries and died on July 10, 2009.

In honor of Matt's character and service, this scholarship will be awarded to the applicant that most closely typifies the qualities of honor, courage, commitment, dedication, and service to others.
