cultivating excellence

garden tour & art show

Join us for our 3rd annual day of garden-filled fun!

tour eight delightful private gardens in Tigard and Tualatin.

Inhale the sweet scent of roses in an exuberant flower-filled garden, tempt your taste buds in an incredible edible landscape, be dazzled by punches of color and contemporary twists, and daydream while watching fish glide through a tree-shaded pond. Gather knowledge and ideas from our garden hosts and tour volunteers. Rain or shine. TICKET REQUIRED shop the Garden Art Show at Tigard High School.

Purchase handcrafted works by selected Northwest artists, featuring cast-concrete leaves, fused and blown glass, metal sculptures, photography, birdhouses, and more. Enjoy musical performances throughout the day. ADMISSION IS FREE stroll through the garden at Mary Woodward Elementary School: the wetlands, wildlife habitats, butterfly garden, active composting area, and enchanting theme beds filled with flowers and vegetables planted by the students. Discover how time spent in the garden provides students with meaningful learning experiences. ADMISSION IS FREE
